

Young Israel of Aventura Welcomes Rabbi Chaim Albert This Shabbat: February 18th

Young Israel of Aventura is excited to announce our new Rabbi, Chaim Albert who, with his Leah, will be welcomed at Shabbos February 18. Over the past ten years, Rabbi Chaim Albert has enlightened thousands with his Torah and unique life perspective. Rabbi Albert shares his thought provoking ideas with a passionate style that inspires audiences of all types. His hallmark has become his unique ability to demonstrate the relevance of classic Torah insights to daily life. His background in therapy, education, and outreach give him a very unique perspective.

Rabbi Albert has received a Bachelor's in Talmudic Law from Yeshivat Shaalvim, Rabbinical Ordination from the Talmudic University, and an MS in Marriage and Family Therapy from Barry University. Rabbi Albert founded the Foundation for Jewish Learning, which became a successful social network for thousands of young Jewish Professionals. He currently serves at the Samuel Scheck Hillel Community Day School. Rabbi Albert anticipates becoming licensed for Marriage and Family Therapy in Florida in the immediate future.

Rebbetzin Leah Albert speaks several languages and has been devoted to outreach over the past ten years hosting thousand of Jews from every background in her home for Shabbat meals and hospitality. She currently teaches at the Yeshiva Elementary School in Miami Beach. Ahron Shlomo age 11 is a budding young chazan, and Ilana Miraim, almost 10, is a talented dancer.
